RE: Rhonda P. Webber v. Ronald W. Webber
Docket No.: FM-12-0000-00-Z
File No.: WEBSITE3246

Dear Mr. Amperguy:

This will confirm the arrangement agreed to between us on July 13, 2005, whereby you will undertake work for us along the lines specified below.

In connection with the retention of our law firm to render legal services to Rhonda P. Webber, we have express authority to retain an accountant who shall work under our direction and report directly to us. This work contemplates services of a character and quality, which would be necessarily adjunct to our services as lawyers. You are authorized to bill us for your services at your hourly rates plus your necessary out-of-pocket disbursements and we, in turn, will charge the client. You will bill us for your services on a bi-monthly basis. A retainer of $ _____ will be paid to you. Your fee will be charged at your normal hourly rates, which you informed me are as follows:

Partner	$
Managers	$
Supervisors	$

Seniors $
Semi-Seniors $
Junior Staff $

In connection with said employment, all communications between you and myself, as well as communications between any other attorney, agent, or employee acting in their behalf, shall be regarded as confidential and made solely for the purpose of assisting counsel in giving legal advice. You will not disclose to anyone, without our written permission, the nature or content of any oral or written communication, nor any information gained from the inspection of any record(s) or document(s) submitted to you, including information obtained from corporate records or documents; and you will not permit inspection of any papers or documents without our permission in advance.

All work papers, records, or other documents, regardless of their nature and the source from which they emanate, shall be held by you solely for our convenience and subject to our unqualified right to instruct you with respect to possession and control. Work papers prepared by you, or under our direction, belong to this law firm.

As part of the agreement to provide accounting services in this matter, you will immediately notify this law firm of the happening of any of the following events: (a) the exhibition or surrender of any documents or records prepared by or submitted to you or someone under your direction, any matter not expressly authorized by this law firm; (b) a request by one to examine, inspect, or copy such documents or records; and (c) any attempt to serve, or the actual service of, any Court order, subpoena, or summons upon you, which requires the production of such documents or records. You will he immediately return all documents, records and workpapers to us at our request.

You understand that you have not been retained to render advice of any nature directly to the client with respect to any matters related to my representation of, and my providing legal services to, the client. You agree to keep accurate and complete records of all work performed by you within the scope of this agreement.

You further agree to bill the client for any other services that you may perform for the client, which services are outside of the scope of this agreement, separate and apart from any billing for services you perform for me, which are within the scope of this agreement.

Please confirm your agreement to an acceptance of the foregoing terms and conditions of your engagement by me in this matter by signing and returning to me this original letter, a copy of which is enclosed for your file.

Thanking you for your courtesy in responding hereto, I am

Sincerely,

Curtis J. Romanowski, Esq.
